

Dear brethren,

We have some very sad and shocking news from the church here. On Saturday, we received a telephone call from Andrei, telling us that his wife had passed away. This has been a complete shock for everyone here, especially considering she was still quite young. As of now, Andrei, Senya, and Maya are doing as best as can be expected. They are relying on the Lord to help them through this sudden parting.

Please keep them in your prayers. We received word of this only after we had already written the newsletter. Next month we will report more on the situation.

In Him,
Erik and Adrienne
